

MHK welcomes Sales Manager to growing team

June 2019: MHK Holding UK LTD, a subsidiary of MHK, Europe's leading buying group for independent kitchen, bathroom and bedroom retailers, is delighted to announce the appointment of Steve Woodworth as Sales manager. Steve will be responsible for working with UK independent kitchen retailers, advising them on the services that membership of MHK brings to empower them to grow and develop their business - including first class purchase prices and a range of innovative services.

Paul Wheeler, Sales Director for MHK UK LTD said: "We are delighted to welcome Steve to the team. His extensive knowledge and experience will make a significant contribution in our ability to reach out to many more independent retailers and tell them about the multiple benefits that membership of Europe's largest buying group brings".

Steve Woodworth has over 14 years' experience in the KBB sector, working predominantly with major kitchen appliance brands including Indesit, Liebherr and BSH Kitchen Division. During that time, he has worked with numerous kitchen retailers from all over the UK, building up an in-depth understanding of their business needs.

Steve Woodworth, new Sales Manager says: “With the uncertainties currently being experienced by the UK retail markets, and the enormous competition offered by the multiple retailers, the time has never been better to explore the benefits of becoming part of a tremendously strong buying group – a group that can add value in numerous areas of the independent sector.”
